Youth Mission Summer 2017

JR EYC

The Junior Mission Trip to Salter Path, NC will be July 9-13, 2017. The youth will stay at the Trinity Center and participate in several local mission activities. The group consists of current 6th-8th grade youth. The $275.00 fee per participant covers transportation, lodging, meals and an excursion. The Rev. Todd Vie, Sarah Lusk, Kate Sigler and Jasper Oliver will lead the trip. The trip is underwritten in part by the Mission Possible Fund, and scholarships are available.

SR EYC

The Senior Mission Trip to San Mateo, Belize will be July 9-15, 2017. The youth will participate in a math and literacy camp at Holy Cross Anglican School for the children of San Pedro, Belize. The group consists of current 9th-12th grade youth. The Rev. Dr. William Watson, Dr. Lynnette Schindler, Kevin Hooper, and Meghan Crowther will lead the trip. The $850.00 fee per participant includes transportation, accommodations, meals, and an excursion. This trip is also underwritten in part by the Mission Possible Fund. Scholarships are available.

Also, youth in grades 8th-12th will participate in a service weekend at the Boys Home in Covington, VA from June 24-25, 2017. David Bice and Sarah Lusk will accompany them. The team will work, worship and play alongside the residents of the Boys Home. The Boys Home is generously hosting our team at no charge so the team's $25.00 registration fee will go towards a donation that will be made to the Boys Home. If necessary, any additional costs will be underwritten in part by the Mission Possible Fund. Scholarships are available.
